

ARKANSAS COURT OF APPEALS
NOT DESIGNATED FOR PUBLICATION
DIVISION IV

CACR05-819

March 22, 2006

ROGER PAUL WILLIAMS
APPELLANT

APPEAL FROM THE POINSETT
COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT
[NO. CR-2003-206]

V.

HON. VICTOR HILL,
JUDGE

STATE OF ARKANSAS

APPELLEE

REBRIEFING ORDERED

ROBERT J. GLADWIN, Judge

A Poinsett County jury found Roger Paul Williams guilty of possession of drug paraphernalia with intent to manufacture methamphetamine and possession of pseudoephedrine. He was sentenced to an aggregate term of six years' imprisonment. On appeal to this court, appellant argues that the trial court erred in denying his motion to suppress evidence obtained during a search of his residence. We are unable to reach the merits of appellant's appeal because his Addendum does not contain the judgment and commitment order<sup>1</sup> that is the subject of this appeal as required by Ark. Sup.Ct. R. 4-2(a)(8). We therefore order rebriefing.

Pursuant to Arkansas Supreme Court Rule 4-2(b)(3), this court finds that appellant's Addendum is deficient, and he is granted fifteen days from the date of the entry of this order within which to file a substituted brief that conforms to Rule 4-2(a)(8). See In re: Modification

---

<sup>1</sup>In his notice of appeal, appellant refers to a judgment and commitment order entered on February 18, 2005, but the order was amended on March 29, 2005, to reflect the total time appellant was to serve on his consecutive sentences.

of the Abstracting Sys., 345 Ark. Appx. 626 (2001) (per curiam); see also Villines v. Harris, ____ Ark. ____, ____ S.W.3d ____ (Mar. 3, 2005) (per curiam). Upon the filing of such a substituted brief by appellant, appellee will be afforded an opportunity to revise or supplement its brief. Ark. Sup.Ct. R. 4-2(b)(3). If appellant fails to file a complying abstract, Addendum, and brief within the prescribed time after having had the opportunity to cure the deficiencies, the order may be affirmed for noncompliance with the Rule. See Ark. Sup.Ct. R. 4-2(b)(3).

Rebriefing ordered.

GRIFFEN and NEAL, JJ., agree.
